

2018 "100 Hügel" Riesling dry

W1803

"100 Hügel" Wine

The fertile hills (in German Hügel) of Rheinhessen with its famous wines is the home of Philipp Wittmann. He developed good wine making cautious ahead and makes his 100 Hügel Riesling already a modern classic: elegant with invigorating freshness of grapefruit and peach remembering.

Tasting Note

A fresh and juicy Riesling defined by its lively acidity and marked minerality. Elegant with a playful freshness redolent of melon and pineapple. Flavors of yellow fruit on the palate meander into a long, wonderful finish. An impeccable Riesling for everyday enjoyment! Pairs well with seasonal salads, baby vegetables and light meats.

Press Reviews

James Suckling – 91 Points "Grilled peaches, dried apple rind, pear tart and loquat spring into action on the nose. Attractive, steely texture with bright acidity crunch and tightly wound phenolics. Medium-bodied and fruity."
