

2022 „100 Hügel“ Weisser Burgunder dry (Pinot Blanc)

W2202

100 Hügel Wines

The fertile hills (in German: “Hügel”) of Rheinhessen with its famous wines is the home of Philipp Wittmann. He developed good wine making cautious ahead and makes his 100Hills Riesling already a modern classic: elegant with invigorating freshness of grapefruit and peach remembering.

Tasting Note

This characteristic Weisser Burgunder walks an impressive tightrope of freshness and elegance. Playful aromas of ripe fruit, herbs and mandarin. The palate delivers a beautiful creamy texture accented with subtle hints of roasted nut; a delicious pairing with a range of Mediterranean fare or simply a comfortable deck chair and a relaxing view.

Press Reviews vintage 2021

James Suckling – 90 Punkte – Stuart Pigott: „Full of Asian-pear, white-peach and fresh herb aromas, excellent harmony of fruit, medium body and animating freshness.“

ALCOHOL: 12,0% vol	GRAPE VARIETY: Pinot Blanc
--------------------	----------------------------

